EDMOND, Okla. -- Six-time champion Central Oklahoma is the slight favorite to capture the 2007 NCAA Division II wrestling national championship, according to the preseason poll released Tuesday by the NCAA Division II Wrestling Coaches' Association.

Only two points separated the top three teams, with the Bronchos earning four of the eight first-place votes and finishing with 152 points to edge out Nebraska-Kearney (151) and Minnesota State-Mankato (150). The Antelopes received three first-place votes and the Mavericks the other first-place nod in the balloting of coaches from around the country.

Three-time defending national champion Nebraska-Omaha was fourth in the rankings, with Pittsburgh-Johnstown (Pa.), Western State (Colo.), Indianapolis (Ind.), Upper Iowa, Fort Hays State and Augustana (S.D.) rounding out the top 10.

UCO, which won eight NAIA titles from 1979-89 in addition to claiming Division II crowns in 1992-93-94-95-02-03, has No. 1 Kyle Evans (141) leading a list of eight ranked individuals.

UNK, last year's runner-up and the host of this season's national tournament, is led by top-rated Brett Allgood (133) and Tervel Dlagnev (285). MSU-Mankato has seven top-eight individuals, headed by No. 2 Nick Smith (125).

Wednesday, Jan. 10 (For Immediate Release)

EDMOND, Okla. -- Central Oklahoma will take the favorite's role into this weekend's NWCA Division II National Duals as the Bronchos remained the unanimous No. 1 pick in the NCAA Division II wrestling poll that was released Wednesday by the NCAA Division II Wrestling Coaches' Association.

UCO received all eight first-place votes in balloting of coaches from around the country to finish with 160 points and stay atop the poll. The top five all remained the same, with Nebraska-Kearney edging out Minnesota State-Mankato (147-146) to stay second, while three-time defending national champion Nebraska-Omaha is fourth and Pittsburgh-Johnstown (Pa.) fifth.

Adams State (Colo.) jumped from 17th to sixth after winning last weekend's Midwest Classic in Indianapolis, with Fort Hays State (Kan.), Upper Iowa, Western State (Colo.) and Ashland (Ohio) rounding out the top 10.

Sixteen of the top 20 teams will be in Cedar Falls, Iowa this weekend for the NWCA Division II National Duals, with Adams State and Upper Iowa the only ranked squads missing from that 16-team tournament. First-round action gets underway Saturday morning, with the championship finals Sunday afternoon.

The six-time Division II national champion Bronchos are paced by top-ranked 141-pounder Kyle Evans. UNK is paced by No. 1s Brett Allgood (133) and Tervel Dlagnev (285), while MSU-Mankato has eight ranked individuals and UNO is led by top-rated Cody Garcia (125) and J.D. Naig (174).

Wednesday, Feb. 7 (For Immediate Release)

EDMOND, Okla. -- Nebraska-Kearney maintained its perch atop the NCAA Division II wrestling rankings Wednesday, with last week's sweep of two of its top challengers making the Antelopes the unanimous No. 1 pick, according to the poll released by the NCAA Division II Wrestling Coaches' Association.

UNK beat the two teams behind it in the rankings last week, downing Central Oklahoma, 24-9, at home and edging Nebraska-Omaha, 18-16, on the road to improve to 15-1 in duals. The Antelopes earned all eight first-place votes to finish with 160 points in topping the poll.

UCO followed its loss to UNK with a 22-14 road win over Nebraska-Omaha to switch places with the Mavericks, while Minnesota State-Mankato came in fourth and Pittsburgh-Johnstown (Pa.) fifth. Rounding out the top 10 is Adams State, Upper Iowa, Western State (Colo.), West Liberty State (W. Va.) and Fort Hays State (Kan.).

UNK, which will host the 2007 NCAA Division II Wrestling Championships on March 9-10, is led by top-ranked individuals Brett Allgood (133 pounds) and Tervel Dlagnev (285). Central Oklahoma is paced by No. 1 Kyle Evans (141), while the three-time defending national champion Mavericks have four No. 1 wrestlers in 125 Cody Garcia, 149 Todd Meneely, 165 Ross Taplin and 174 J.D. Naig.

The other two top-ranked individuals are 184 Mike Corcetti of UPJ and 197 Casey Woodall of Adams State.
