EDMOND, Okla. -- St. Cloud State (Minn.) enters the 2011-12 season as the No. 1 team in NCAA Division II wrestling, according to the preseason poll released by the NCAA Division II Wrestling Coaches Association Wednesday.

The Huskies, coming off a best-ever runner-up finish in last year's national tournament, received four of the eight first-place votes cast in balloting of coaches from around the country and finished with 153 points in earning the favorite's tag.

Newberry (S.C.), which has won four straight Super Region I titles and was sixth nationally last season, earned three first-place votes and is second in the poll with 150 points. Upper Iowa came in third with 144 points, Nebraska-Kearney had the other first-place vote in finishing fourth with 132 and Grand Canyon (Ariz.) is fifth with 130.

Rounding out the top 10 is Augustana (S.D.), Central Oklahoma, Pittsburgh-Johnstown (Pa.), Wisconsin-Parkside and Ashland (Ohio).

Twenty-nine teams received points in the wide-open voting, with first-year program Maryville (Mo.) coming in 15th with 47 points. Nebraska-Omaha had its program disbanded last year after winning its third straight national championship and several members of that team, led by long-time head coach Mike Denney, went to Maryville.

The top 20 poll, with points and each team's finish in last year's national tournament following by the individual rankings at each weight:

Rank	School (State)	Points	Last Year's Finish
1.	St. Cloud State (Minn.)	153	2nd
2.	Newberry (S.C.)	150	6th
3.	Upper Iowa	144	4th

Wednesday, Jan. 11 (For Immediate Release)

EDMOND, Okla. -- St. Cloud State (Minn.) reclaimed the No. 1 ranking the NCAA Division II wrestling poll that was released Wednesday by the NCAA Division II Wrestling Coaches Association.

The Huskies were the preseason No. 1 pick before dropping to third in the first regular-season rankings, but SCSU was the unanimous pick this time around after claiming the team title at last weekend's NWCA/Cliff Keen Division II National Duals in Springfield, Ill.

St. Cloud defeated previous No. 1 Newberry (S.C.) 23-12 in the finals of that 16-team event and finished with 160 points in balloting of coaches from around the country. Newberry came in second with 152 points.

Upper Iowa dropped from second to third with 144 points after finishing third in the National Duals, with fourth-place finisher Nebraska-Kearney staying fourth with 136 points.

Rounding out the top 10 is Augustana (S.D.), Central Oklahoma, Grand Canyon (Ariz.), Mercyhurst (Pa.), Wisconsin-Parkside and Limestone (S.C.). Limestone made the biggest jump, coming in 10th after being unranked in the last poll.

St. Cloud, Upper Iowa and Wisconsin-Parkside each have two No. 1-ranked individuals -- Tad Merritt (165) and Jacob Kahnke (heavyweight) for the Huskies, Kyle Petretti (125) and Trevor Franklin (133) for the Peacocks and Dillon Bera (157) and Luke Rynish (174) for the Rangers.

The top 20 poll, with points and each team's ranking in the last poll following by the individual rankings at each weight:

Wednesday, Feb. 8 (For Immediate Release)

EDMOND, Okla. -- St. Cloud State (Minn.) stayed atop the NCAA Division II wrestling rankings as the unanimous choice in the top-20 poll that was released Wednesday by the Division II Wrestling Coaches Association.

The Huskies received all eight first-place votes in balloting of coaches from around the country to finish with 160 points. SCSU, a perfect 19-0 in duals, has been No. 1 in four of the five polls this season.

Newberry remained No. 2 with 151 points, Upper Iowa stayed third with 139.5 and Nebraska-Kearney switched places with Augustana (S.D.) to round out the top five teams.

Making up the second half of the top 10 is Central Oklahoma, Grand Canyon (Ariz.), Pittsburgh-Johnstown, Adams State (Colo.) and Ashland (Ohio).

St. Cloud State and Wisconsin-Parkside each have two No. 1-ranked individuals -- Tad Merritt (165) and Jacob Kahnke (heavyweight) for the Huskies and Dillon Bera (157) and Luke Rynish (174) for the Rangers.

Teams are nearing the end of the regular season and gearing up for the four regional qualifying tournaments that will be held the weekend of Feb. 24-26. The top-four placers at each weight in all four regionals advance to the NCAA Division II Wrestling Championships, set for March 9-10 in Pueblo, Colo.
