The 2011-2012 Division II All-Academic Wrestling Team consists of 164 student-athletes from 40 universities and colleges. Thirty-seven members were named to the first team, 45 members to the second team, and 82 were named as honorable mention. St. Cloud State University place four members on the first team, while Augustana College and the University of Nebraska at Kearney each placed three members on the first team. Four student-athletes were named to the team for the fourth time. They were Luke Rynish from the University of Wisconsin-Parkside, Jacob D. Horn from St. Cloud State University, Ethan Harris from the University of Indianapolis, and Jordan White from the University of Nebraska at Kearney.

The North Region dominated the academic competition with 19 of the first team selections, 15 of the second team selections, and 27 of the honorable mention selections.

In order for a student-athlete to be nominated to the Division II All-Academic Team, he needed to have a minimum 3.00 cumulative grade point average on a 4.0 scale. He must also be in at least his second full year at his school, be a varsity member on his team or a key reserve, demonstrate a degree of skill and have a minimum of two letters of recommendation (academic advisor and coach) submitted on his behalf.

The University of Mary recorded the highest team grade point average (GPA) in the Nineteenth Annual Division II All-Academic Wrestling Team competition and has won the Academic National Championship. This is the first time that the University of Mary has achieved this honor. Nine other NCAA II schools have also won the National Championship. They include the University of Wisconsin-Parkside, Fort Hays State University, the University of Indianapolis, Colorado School of Mines, Truman State University, West Liberty State College, Minnesota State University-Mankato, the University of Nebraska at Omaha and the University of Nebraska at Kearney. Ten of the top twenty academic teams came from the North Region, four came from the East Region, four came from the West, and two came from Midwest Regions. The Team GPA is calculated by averaging the cumulative grade point averages of ten wrestlers from each team of which eight of those wrestlers must have competed in their team's NCAA II National Qualifying Tournament.
