Monday, Oct. 27 (For Immediate Release)

EDMOND, Okla. -- Maryville (Mo.) earned its first-ever No. 1 ranking in the NCAA Division II wrestling poll Monday as the Saints earned the favorite's tag for the 2015 national championship, according to the pre-season rankings released by the Division II Wrestling Coaches Association.

Maryville, a fourth-year program that will serve as host institution for the 2015 NCAA Division II Wrestling Championships in St. Louis next March, received five first-place votes and finished with 151 points in balloting of head coaches from around the country. The Saints return five All-Americans from last year's third-place team in addition to an All-American from the season before and all six wrestlers are in the pre-season individual rankings.

Ouachita Baptist (Ark.) is second in the poll with 142 points, while Nebraska-Kearney earned two first-place votes and came in third with 134 points. Defending national champion Notre Dame (Ohio) received the remaining first-place vote and is fourth with 122 points, one ahead of St. Cloud State (Minn.).

Rounding out the top 10 is McKendree (Ill.), Mercyhurst (Pa.), Western State (Colo.), Central Oklahoma and Lindenwood (Mo.).

UNK is the only team with more than one top-ranked individual as 133-pounder Daniel DeShazer and 197-pounder Romero Cotton topped their respective weights.

The top 20 poll, with points and each team's national tournament finish, following by the individual rankings at each weight:

Wednesday, Jan. 28 (For Immediate Release)

EDMOND, Okla. -- Maryville (Mo.) remained the unanimous No. 1 team in the NCAA Division II wrestling rankings, according to the poll released Wednesday by the Division II Wrestling Coaches Association.

The Saints earned all eight first-place votes in balloting of head coaches from around the country to finish with 160 points. Maryville, which has topped the national rankings in four of this season's five polls, will host the NCAA Division II Wrestling Championships March 13-14 in St. Louis, Mo.

St. Cloud State (Minn.) took over second place in the poll with 141 points, seven ahead of defending national champion Notre Dame (Ohio). Ouachita Baptist (Ark.) jumped from ninth to fourth with 110 points, one ahead of Western State (Colo.).

Rounding out the top 10 is Nebraska-Kearney, Mercyhurst (Pa.), Lake Erie (Ohio), Lindenwood (Mo.) and Upper Iowa. Lake Erie made the biggest leap, moving from a 15th-place tie to eighth after beating Notre Dame in a dual last week.

The Falcons continue to feature the most No. 1 individuals with three in defending national champions Jon Rivera (157 pounds), Joey Davis (174) and Garrett Lineberger (184). UNK has two -- 133 Daniel Deshazer and 197 Romero Cotton.

The top 20 poll, with points and each team's last ranking, following by the individual rankings at each weight:

Wednesday, Feb. 25 (For Immediate Release)

EDMOND, Okla. -- St. Cloud State (Minn.) maintained its perch atop the NCAA Division II wrestling rankings by the slimmest of margins Wednesday, according to the poll released by the Division II Wrestling Coaches Association.

The Huskies received four first-place votes and finished with 152 points to trim Maryville (Mo.) by one point, with Ouachita Baptist (Ark.) just another point back in third place in balloting of head coaches from around the country.

The Saints had the remaining four first-place votes in finishing with 151 points and the Tigers had 150 in moving up one spot to third. Defending national champion Notre Dame (Ohio) fell to fourth with 136 points and McKendree (Ill.) moved up three positions to No. 5.

Rounding out the top 10 is Mercyhurst (Pa.), Nebraska-Kearney, Western State (Colo.), North Carolina-Pembroke and Colorado Mesa.

Regional qualifying tournaments will be held at four sites this weekend, with West Liberty hosting the East Super Regional, UNC-Pembroke the Midwest Super Regional, MSU-Mankato the Central Super Regional and Colorado State-Pueblo the West Super Regional.

The top four placers at each weight in all four regional tournaments advance to the NCAA Division II Wrestling Championships, which is set for March 13-14 in St. Louis, Mo.
