NCAA DIVISION II WRESTLING COACHES ASSOCIATION POLL

INDIANAPOLIS-- In the first regular season ranking of the season, defending national champion St. Cloud State tops the Division II Wrestling Coaches Association poll, released Monday evening on D2wrestle.com

The Huskies feature six nationally-ranked wrestlers, led by Brett Valazquez at 125 and Austin Goergen at 285, with both student-athletes topping their weight class in the individual rankings. Maryville held strong in the #2 spot, followed by Notre Dame, McKendree and Nebraska-Kearney all making jumps into the nation's top five.

A pair of teams, Findlay and Central Oklahoma, made a move into the top 25 after not being ranked in the preseason edition of the rankings, while Northern State's eight-spot leap from 15th to a tie for seventh with Upper Iowa made them the biggest mover in this edition of the Top 25.

The next ranking will be published during the first week of the New Year.

NCAA DIVISION II WRESTLING COACHES ASSOCIATION POLL

INDIANAPOLIS-- Defending national champion St. Cloud State holds on to the top spot in NCAA Division II Wrestling in the first edition of the Division II Wrestling Coaches Association poll of the New Year, released Wednesday morning on D2wrestle.com

The Huskies feature seven nationally-ranked wrestlers, led by Brett Valazquez at 125 and Austin Goergen at 285, with both student-athletes topping their weight class in the individual rankings. Notre Dame and Maryville switched spots, with the Falcons taking the two-spot over the Saints at #3. Nebraska-Kearney moved into the #4 position, with Wisconsin-Parkside making a huge leap from outside the top 25 into the #5 spot.

Joining the Rangers moving into the top 25 are Colorado State-Pueblo (21), Kutztown (22), Lindenwood (T23) and Newman (T23), while Lake Erie's six-spot jump and Findlay's five-spot move them the biggest movers in this edition of the Top 25, aside from Wisconsin-Parkside's jump into the rankings.

The next ranking will be published during the last week of January.

NCAA DIVISION II WRESTLING COACHES ASSOCIATION POLL

INDIANAPOLIS-- Defending national champion St. Cloud State holds on to the top spot in NCAA Division II Wrestling in the latest edition of the NCAA Division II Wrestling Coaches Association Poll, released Friday morning on D2wrestle.com

The Huskies feature eight nationally-ranked wrestlers, led by top-ranked Austin Goergen at 285. Nebraska-Kearney made the move from #3 to #2, with a trio of Great Lakes Valley Conference institutions making up the rest of the top five. Wisconsin-Parkside and Maryville are tied at the three-spot, with McKendree rounding out the top five.

Colorado State-Pueblo was the biggest mover in this edition of the rankings, jumping from #22 to #13. Moving into the rankings from the not-ranked category were Indianapolis (#T18), Colorado Mesa (#T18), Newman (#22) and Upper Iowa (#T24).

The NCAA Division II Wrestling Coaches Association Poll team rankings are determined by a points ranking based upon the ranking of a team's individually ranked student-athletes.

The next ranking will be published in two weeks.

NCAA DIVISION II WRESTLING COACHES ASSOCIATION POLL

INDIANAPOLIS-- Defending national champion St. Cloud State holds on to the top spot in NCAA Division II Wrestling in the latest edition of the NCAA Division II Wrestling Coaches Association Poll, released Wednesday morning on D2wrestle.com

The Huskies feature nine nationally-ranked wrestlers, led by top-ranked Austin Goergen at 285. Nebraska-Kearney held at the #2 spot, while Notre Dame made the jump over Maryville and Wisconsin-Parkside to #3. The Saints and Rangers make up the rest of the top five in the four and five spots, respectively.

Tiffin made the largest jump in this edition of the poll, moving into the #11 spot after previously holding the #23 ranking. Western State, coming in at #22 in this ranking, made the only jump into the Top 25, while Seton Hill fell from #T16 to the receiving points listing.

The NCAA Division II Wrestling Coaches Association Poll team rankings are tournament strength, and are determined by a points ranking based upon the ranking of a team's individually ranked student-athletes.

The next ranking will be published in two weeks.

NCAA DIVISION II WRESTLING COACHES ASSOCIATION POLL

INDIANAPOLIS-- Defending national champion St. Cloud State holds on to the top spot in NCAA Division II Wrestling heading into this weekend's Super Regional competition in the latest edition of the NCAA Division II Wrestling Coaches Association Poll, released Monday morning on D2wrestle.com

The Huskies feature seven nationally-ranked wrestlers, led by top-ranked Austin Goergen at 285. Maryville and Nebraska-Kearney come in tied for the #2 spot, while Notre Dame move to #3. Central Oklahoma rounds out the top five in the team rankings.

Lindenwood made the largest jump in this edition of the poll, moving into the #10 spot after receiving points in the last poll. A trio of teams jumped into the top 25 in this edition of the poll, with Minnesota State-Mankato (T19) and Augustana (24) moving into the ranked team listing. UNC-Pembroke was the lone team to fall out of the top 25.

The NCAA Division II Wrestling Coaches Association Poll team rankings are tournament strength, and are determined by a points ranking based upon the ranking of a team's individually ranked student-athletes.

The next ranking will be published prior to the 2017 NCAA Division II Wrestling Championships.

NCAA DIVISION II WRESTLING COACHES ASSOCIATION POLL

INDIANAPOLIS-- Defending national champion St. Cloud State holds on to the top spot in NCAA Division II Wrestling heading into the 2017 Wrestling National Championships in the latest edition of the NCAA Division II Wrestling Coaches Association Poll, released Thursday on D2wrestle.com

The Huskies feature eight nationally-ranked wrestlers, headlined by top-ranked, returning National Champion Brett Valazquez at 125. Notre Dame took over sole control of the #2 spot, with Nebraska-Kearney in the three-spot. McKendree and Maryville round out the nation’s top five teams heading into Nationals, in the four and five spots.

King University, bolstered by the return of Bryce Killian at 141, made the largest jump in this edition of the poll, from receiving points to #19. UNC-Pembroke (T22), Seton Hill (23), Limestone (T25) and Minnesota State-Moorhead (T25) all made the move into the top 25 in the final edition of the poll.

The NCAA Division II Wrestling Coaches Association Poll team rankings are tournament strength, and are determined by a points ranking based upon the ranking of a team’s individually ranked student-athletes.

This is the final ranking of the 2016-17 season.
